

The flexible self levelling floor screed pump

EstrichBoy FE 400

For self levelling floor screed

- Cement screed
- Calcium sulphate screed

The diverse and practical tool on the construction site

The EstrichBoy FE 400 is ideally suitable for pumping self levelling floor screed with a maximum grain size of up to 12 mm, as compound screed on barrier or insulating layers, on underfloor heating and raised floor systems, and also for pumping pumpable equalizing and insulating materials, e.g. polystyrene-based.

- Simple and light to transport and manoeuvre
- Can be fed easily and directly from the truck mixer
- Reaches conveying distances of up to 200 m and handles grain sizes up to 12 mm
- High productivity, flexible application possibilities
- Plenty of storage space for accessories
- Low maintenance costs

BRINKMANN

All benefits at a glance

- No need of an additional driver licence for transportation, unbraked chassis
- Lightweight and optimal balance on the drawbar
- Equipped with an advanced turbocharged Kubota diesel engine with 33.5 kW
- Optimized arrangement of the drive components
- Maintenance- and service-friendly
- Infinitely variable pump output
- Robust fully hydraulic pump drive
- Lightweight and resistant plastic canopy
- Integrated tool box and large storage space
